

Join the Kehillah of Lower Merion for a Selichot Program and Service

Led by local clergy on Saturday, September 17, 2022

Main Line Reform Temple, 410 Montgomery Ave, Wynnewood, PA 19096

In Person and livestream (mlrt.org/livestream)

We invite you to a moving and meaningful evening of study, conversation, and worship that will serve as a prelude to the High Holy Day season.

8:15 PM: Nosh

8:30 PM: Communal Havdalah

8:45 PM: "Ethics of Rebuke" with Rabbi Mira Wasserman

In this interactive study session, we will examine the different ways traditional Jewish texts interpret the obligation to offer rebuke, or Tokhekha.

9:30 PM: Choice of Services

Choice One: Choir-Infused

Choice Two: Traditional-Meditative

Rabbi Mira Beth Wasserman, PhD, is director of the Center for Jewish Ethics and associate professor of rabbinic literature at the Reconstructionist Rabbinical College. The author of Jews, Gentiles, and Other Animals: The Talmud after the Humanities, her current research focuses on how the Talmud is deployed in ethical arguments.
